

P R E S S R E L E A S E

For Immediate Release

Contact: Gertrude O'Sullivan 860-364-5157
30 April 2008

Information for Immigrants

The Foundation for Community Health co-hosted a Spanish-language informational forum, Immigrants: Your Rights & Responsibilities, in Amenia, NY on 27 April at the Immaculate Conception Parish Center. This event, in collaboration with AHORA, Association for Hispanics to Obtain Resources and Assistance, and Hudson River HealthCare, included presentations on immigration law, landlord/tenant issues, labor laws, housing and public safety as well as the sharing of information and literature by eighteen programs, agencies and services that were at the event.

(L-R) Lewis Creekmore from Legal Services of the Hudson Valley is at the microphone while Edwin Ramirez, Jr. from the Dutchess County Sheriff's Office, Solange Muller, Hudson River HealthCare, Diana Vazquez, Workers' Rights Law Center and Mary Ellen Ros from Catholic Charities are at the dais.